LIBERTY MEDIA REPORTS FOURTH QUARTER AND YEAR END 2012 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Englewood, Colorado, February 27, 2013 - Liberty Media Corporation (“Liberty Media”) (Nasdaq: LMCA, LMCB) today reported fourth quarter and year end 2012 results. Highlights include⁽¹⁾:

- Completed separation from Starz on January 11
 - Received $1.2 billion in connection with the spin-off
- Received approval from FCC for de jure control of SiriusXM
 - Purchased additional 50 million SiriusXM shares in January
 - Converted remaining preferred shares into common shares
 - Resulting ownership interest above 50%, which resulted in consolidation
- Purchased additional shares of Live Nation, increasing Liberty ownership to approximately 27%
- Repurchased $78 million of Liberty Media shares from November 1, 2012 through January 11, 2013, pre-Starz separation, and repurchased $52 million of Liberty Media shares from January 14, 2013 through January 31, 2013, post-Starz separation

“We were pleased to receive approval from the FCC for de jure control of SiriusXM and subsequently increased our ownership interest above 50%,” said Greg Maffei President and CEO of Liberty Media. “SiriusXM again posted strong results and ended the year with almost 24 million subscribers. We increased our ownership stake in Live Nation and are encouraged by the growth in their ticket sales for 2013. At Barnes & Noble, we were pleased by the strategic investment by Pearson in NOOK Media.”

Liberty Media

On January 11, 2013 Liberty Media was spun-off from Starz. The financials as of December 31, 2012 include the financial results of Starz. Liberty will present Starz as discontinued operations when reporting results in the first quarter of 2013. Pro forma, Liberty Media had $1.8 billion in cash and no debt at the time of the spin-off.

Liberty Media's revenue decreased 52% to $467 million in the fourth quarter and 34% to $2 billion for the year. Adjusted OIBDA decreased 76% to $77 million for the quarter and 58% to $450 million for the year. Operating income decreased 91% to $25 million for the quarter and 66% to $326 million for the year. The decrease in revenue, adjusted OIBDA and operating income was primarily related to a one-time recognition of deferred revenue and costs at TruePosition in the prior year.

Starz, LLC

Starz's revenue decreased 2% to $423 million for the fourth quarter and increased 1% to $1.6 billion for the year. The decrease in revenue for the fourth quarter was primarily a result of a decrease in Starz Distribution revenue due to fewer titles available from The Weinstein Company and a decrease in revenue from Starz Networks primarily due to the non-renewal of the Netflix agreement. The increase in revenue for the year was primarily as a result of increases in revenue from the Starz Distribution and Starz Networks businesses which were partially offset by a decrease in revenue for the Starz Animation business.

Adjusted OIBDA increased 10% to $102 million for the fourth quarter and decreased 1% to $445 million for the year. The increase in adjusted OIBDA for the fourth quarter was primarily due to fewer exhibitions at Starz Networks of first-run (first window) films and higher utilization of second window films licensed under our output agreements with Disney and Sony and decreased advertising and marketing costs associated with original programming. Starz Networks did not have a new original series premiere during the fourth quarter of 2012, while the first season of the original series Boss premiered in October 2011. Starz Networks' increase was partially offset by increased production and acquisition costs at Starz Distribution due to revisions made to ultimate revenue estimates which resulted in impairments to capitalized production and acquisition costs for certain titles.

The decrease in adjusted OIBDA for the year was primarily due to increased production and acquisition costs at Starz Distribution resulting from the revisions made in the fourth quarter to the ultimate revenue estimates as mentioned above. This decrease in adjusted OIBDA was partially offset by lower advertising and marketing costs at Starz Networks resulting from one fewer Starz original series premiere during 2012. Starz Networks had three new original series or new season premieres in 2012 as compared to four in 2011. Consolidated Eliminations also contributed to the decrease due to fewer exhibitions of Overture

Films' titles on Starz Networks during 2012. Operating income was flat for the fourth quarter and decreased 4% to $406 million for the year.

Share Repurchases

From November 1, 2012 through January 11, 2013, 0.7 million shares of Series A Liberty Capital common stock (Nasdaq: LMCA) were purchased at an average cost per share of $109.49 for total cash consideration of $78.2 million. After the completion of the Starz spin-off on January 11, 2013 through January 31, 2013, 0.5 million shares of Series A Liberty Capital common stock (Nasdaq: LMCA) were purchased at an average cost per share of $110.19 for total cash consideration of $52.1 million. Since the reclassification of the original Liberty Capital tracking stock on March 4, 2008 through January 11, 2013, 58.4 million shares have been repurchased at an average cost per share of $32.55 for total cash consideration of $1.9 billion. These repurchases represent 45.3% of the shares outstanding at the time of the introduction of the original Liberty Capital stock. Liberty Media has approximately $397.9 million remaining under its current stock repurchase authorization.

Liberty Media Corporation owns interests in a broad range of media, communications and entertainment businesses. Those interests include its subsidiaries Atlanta National League Baseball Club, Inc., SiriusXM (beginning January 2013) and TruePosition, Inc., interests in Live Nation and minority equity investments in Barnes & Noble and Time Warner Inc.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This press release includes a presentation of adjusted OIBDA, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, for Liberty Media and Starz LLC, together with a reconciliation to that entity's operating income, as determined under GAAP. Liberty Media defines adjusted OIBDA as revenue less operating expenses, and selling, general and administrative expenses (excluding stock and other equity-based compensation) and excludes from that definition depreciation and amortization, restructuring and impairment charges and legal settlements that are included in the measurement of operating income pursuant to GAAP.

Liberty Media believes adjusted OIBDA is an important indicator of the operational strength and performance of its businesses, including each business' ability to service debt and fund capital expenditures. In addition, this measure allows management to view operating results and perform analytical comparisons and benchmarking between businesses and identify strategies to improve performance. Because adjusted OIBDA is used as a measure of operating performance, Liberty Media views operating income as the most directly comparable GAAP measure. Adjusted OIBDA is not meant to replace or supersede operating income or any other GAAP measure, but rather to supplement such GAAP measures in order to present investors with the same information that Liberty Media's management considers in assessing the results of operations and performance of its assets. Please see the attached schedules for applicable reconciliations.
